🇬🇧 SSSSB Story 081b – Daughter vs Son [13+]

A brother and sister were often arguing, because deep inside, both of them felt that their parents were favoring the other.

The sister said, with sadness in her voice:

“I don’t think this is fair... I am older than you, but our parents always give you more freedom. You can do so many things, and I cannot. Sometimes it hurts me. In my next life, I want to be your brother, and you can be my sister. Then you will truly understand how I feel.”

The brother looked at her and replied softly:

“No, sister... you don’t see it the way I do. It feels different to me. Our parents give you more care and attention. Sometimes I feel left out... like I have to be strong all the time. In our next life, if I become your sister, then you will understand how I feel inside.”
