🇬🇧 SSSSB Story 080b – The Dream of a Different Life [13+]

Once, two school students were talking together after school.

One student said,

“Next life, I hope to be a talented sports player and play for the national team of my country. In this life, I don’t have good opportunities to be successful. Then I will give autographs to my fans, be rich, be popular, buy houses in different countries, and be able to buy everything I want.”

The second student replied,

“I also don’t have good opportunities to be successful. In this life I have very few chances, I have to work very hard, and I have little chance of having a good life. In my next life, I hope to be the child of famous parents. Then I will automatically become famous, very successful, and become the richest person in my country.”
