🇬🇧 SSSSB Story 082b – I Wish I Could Be You [13+]

There was a boy and a monkey. They had known each other since they were both babies. They often talked with each other. The monkey shared stories about life as a monkey, and the boy talked about his life as a human. The monkey wished to become a human, and the boy wished to become a monkey.

They decided to search for a divine person who could turn the boy into a monkey and the monkey into a boy. They searched everywhere but could not find anyone who could do this. Sad and disappointed, they sat under a tree.

Then they heard a bird sitting in the tree ask, “Why are you so sad?” The boy and the monkey told the bird about their wish. The bird replied, “I have received a special gift from the God of birds. Because of that, I can do anything.” And so, the bird turned the monkey into a boy, and the boy into a monkey.
