Three Best Friend

Part 1: About the Three Friend

Once upon a time there were three best friends. Their name was Manav, Sanket and Rishabh. All three were poor. They always play with each other. There was a jungle near the village they live. That jungle was safe because there were no wild animals in that jungle. One day while playing in the jungle they found a bag. That bag was really mysterious because it was in the jungle and no one was there.

Part 2: What is in the bag? part 2

After they found bag, they were really confused what to do with that bag. Manav said: there can be bomb in the bag. All three got scared but after some time they show courage and open the bag. In that bag they found a lot of money.

Part 3: What they do with the bag full of money?

All three of them were happy because they were poor and they got money. Sanket said: "I don't have any idea about what to do with this money, do you guys have any idea than please share".

After that Manav said: "let's take the bag with us, we are poor and this money will help us to spend our life nicely".

Rishabh disagree with the decision of Manav. Rishabh said: "This money is not our, we don't have any right to take it. They again started thinking about what to do with that bag full of money".

After some time Sanket said: "Let's give this money to police".

All of them agree with the decision and they went nearby police station. After they reach the police station and give the money to the police, they knew that all the money in the bag was stolen a night before from the bank. For returning the bag they were awarded from the government as well as their school.

They become famous and, in their future, they become detective and live their life happily after.

Moral: Never take the things which doesn't belong to you.

The End 😊
