🕯️ SSSSB Story 060a – Luna and Anita and Their Two Friends (for ages 5–9)

Once upon a time, there were two girls, both eight years old, named Luna and Anita. They lived near a pond at the edge of the forest. The girls had two animal friends: Kiki, a cheerful parrot 🦜, and Bubbles, a kind little fish 🐟.

Every morning, Luna and Anita called out by the pond:
“Good morning, Parrot Kiki! Good morning, Fish Bubbles!”

One day, Kiki said: “Luna and Anita, let’s scare the turtles! That would be funny!”

Bubbles shook his fin. “That’s not nice, Kiki. They’ll get scared. Friends should make others happy.”

Luna and Anita nodded. “Yes, let’s do something kind instead of something scary.”

So Kiki flew to a tree, picked some fruits, and dropped them into the water. The turtles came out and happily ate the berries. The turtles said, “Thank you, Kiki and friends!”

Kiki laughed. “Bubbles was right — true friends help each other do good things.”

Luna and Anita smiled. “That’s why we are the best of friends.”

And from that day on, Luna, Anita, Kiki, and Bubbles made everyone in the forest happy with their kindness. Even the turtles wanted to join in and do good deeds too.

🕯️ Question of the Day:

What do you think of Luna and Anita’s friends?
How can you help your friends do good things?
