

🇬🇧 Physical Class Game: Story 055: “Find the Ministers”

Setup: Children sit in a circle. 4r chairs are placed in the middle -Health, Education, Family Affairs, and Sports & Games. A paper hat is given to one child who plays the King/Queen.

Rules: The Search Begins

The King/Queen announces: “We need ministers, but only those who joined SSSSB lessons!” The rest of the children pretend to “travel” for 9 days. Each round, they act out a different way of traveling: walking, cycling, rowing a boat, flying a helicopter with arms, etc.

No Ministers Found

After the “9 days,” the children return and say together: “We found no one!” The King/Queen looks disappointed.

Discovery Twist

The King/Queen then opens a box with slips of paper. Each slip has a child’s name written on it (prepared beforehand). Surprise! The names are revealed as “SSSSB family members.”

Minister Selection

The chosen child picks one of the four chairs and becomes that minister. They must say one funny or creative promise for their ministry.

Example:

- Minister of Health: “I promise free ice cream checkups every Friday!”
- Minister of Education: “Homework will be only drawing smiley faces!”
- Minister of Family Affairs: “Every family must play hide-and-seek together!”
- Minister of Sports & Games: “Jumping on one leg will be the national sport!”

Joyful Ending

The King/Queen declares: “Now our land has ministers again!”

Everyone claps and chants together: “SSSSB ministers bring joy!”
