🇬🇧 SSSSB Story 080a – Everyone Has Their Own Talents [5–12]

One day, two children were sitting together in the school playground.

The first child said,

“I wish I was like that famous football player. He is rich, everyone knows him, and people cheer for him.”

The second child said,

“I wish I was the child of very rich parents. Then I could buy toys, big houses, and everything I want.”

A teacher who was walking by heard them talking and smiled.

The teacher said,

“Instead of dreaming about another life, why not discover the talents you already have and use them in your daily life and to help others?”

The children smiled and started thinking about what good things they could do today.
