

🇬🇧 English Version - SSSSB Story 009a: Kibibi Becomes Kind Again [5-12 years]

Kibibi lived in Congo with her mother, father, and her brother, Mbemba.

Kibibi used to be very kind. She helped Mama in the kitchen. She played nicely with Mbemba. She always said, “Please” and “Thank you.”

But one day, Kibibi got upset. “Josiane my classmate, got a big chocolate from her parents! Why didn’t I get one from you, Mother and Father?” she shouted.

She stopped helping. She shouted at Mbemba. She was not kind anymore.

Mother and Father were sad. “What happened to our kind Kibibi?” they said.

Mbemba had an idea. “Can I go to the SSSSB class near our home?” he asked. “Merphia Ma’am and Gita Ma’am teach good things there.”

Mother and Father smiled. “Yes, Mbemba You can go.”

After a few classes, Mbemba said to Kibibi, “Come with me. The SSSSB class is peaceful and fun.”

Kibibi thought. She missed being kind. She missed smiling.

She said, “Yes. I want to try again.”

Now Kibibi is kind again. She helps Mama.

She plays nicely with Mbemba. She is happy—just like before.

Question of the day: When you feel upset or jealous like Kibibi did, what kind thing could you do to make your heart peaceful again?